

Story map

Support Description

This graphic organizer is a flow chart that students use to record a story arch. It allows students to think about the big picture of a story as they read or listen to it. A story map generally includes characters, settings, problem, events, solution, and ending.

